We've simplified the search page. Here you can search by jurisdiction and content type or by jurisdiction and by sources. Content relating to European Law, the Eastern Caribbean Supreme Court Reports, West Indian Reports and Bahamas Law all remain in the main LexisLibrary site.

From the top search bar you can search for documents, across all content or specify jurisdiction and content types.

Click on the Search help link for assistance on constructing your search query.

For cases searches if you know the dates you need you can enter these either before running your search using the more search options link or after running your search on the results page. You can also narrow your search by specifying the judge. For Australian and New Zealand cases, you can choose a court using a dropdown list as well.

You can share your search results by copying a link to this page. •----
